Scope of PES – CSR Collaborations

What "CSR" means to PES

Work towards building partnerships with organisations that strive to advance the causes that PES has been committed to address

Social innovation through such partnerships which enable to execute projects in the areas of women empowerment, education and employment, ecological preservation, health and welfare and sustainable livelihood

Develop, build and apply unique models in the above areas that can lead to the upliftment of human cause while making an impact at grass root levels

Emerge as the most sought out partner/service provider for the corporates that are committed to bringing about change in the areas of human welfare and ecological preservation

एनटीपीसी NTPC National Thermal Power Corporation

Infrastructure Support to Women Rehabilitation Centre

90 women that year, 50 women every year
A funding initiative for infrastructure support for the destitute women rehabilitation center run by PES in Karimnagar

PES runs a rehabilitation center for destitute women who are victimized by Domestic Violence, Trafficking, Family Alienation and so on. Over the last decade the center has rehabilitated more than 1300 women and 300 children dependent on those destitute women. One of the biggest challenges for the center is the lack of robust infrastructure as safety of the inmates is one the vital issues for such centers. With the help of NTPC's CSR funding a proper shed and walls were constructed to provide for a more permanent and strong housing structure for the inmates of the rehabilitation center

Sustainable Livelihood Programme for Women

30 women, ₹3,500 – 4,000 earning per month
A multi-pronged initiative consisting of skill development, infrastructure support for self-employment seekers in the trade of Tailoring in Karimnagar

Through the CSR Initiative of National Thermal Power Corporation (NTPC), PES was able to provide a 45 -day training programme on Advanced Tailoring skills to 30 young economically backward women and also provide all of them with Juki Tailoring machines to set them up for self-employment. PES was able to then generate orders from the market and set-up a channel linkage between the tailors and the buyers. Now this group is earning ₹3,500 - ₹5,000 per month on a consistent basis and the group has now increased to 40 young women

Eye-Check Camp

40 beneficiaries

A free medical camp providing eye check-ups for villagers at Arutla

One of PES main programmes is conducting mobile medical check camps at various places in the state. This is done through sponsored programmes by government or private institutions. Telenor Group (Uninor) through its CSR wing funded a free mobile medical camp that was executed by PES at Arutla village in Sangareddy district. The mobile camp that lasted for a day was principally focused on providing education about eye health and ways to take care of eyes properly while also the on-site ophthalmologist provided free check-ups for the participants in the programme

Channel Support for SHG

500 SHG members

An extensive channel support to help in brand-building and marketing for the SHG products through existing Telenor outlets

One of the major challenges in Sustainable Development project for clusters is to create brand awareness and brand recognition and the promotion strategy is quite often very expensive. Telenor Group's CSR wing strategically displayed the products and the brand of the SHG at all the various outlets of Uninor across the state of Telangana with primary focus on the Hyderabad region. This enabled the SHG not only build market but also build a brand for their products
